If you need some fresh air between your tasks, the immediate neighbourhood has plenty in store for you: The Hohenzollernring is a popular promenade and is located directly in the centre of Cologne near Rodolfplatz.

In our Cologne coworking space, you can rent both permanent office space in sizes suitable for individuals or entire teams, as well as flexible workspaces. The business centre also has two creative conference and meeting rooms for up to 12 people with a prestigious ambience and audiovisual equipment. Our location also offers the option of renting a virtual business address or a company headquarters in the heart of Cologne. We are happy to provide additional office services such as our telephone service and the processing of incoming business mail. Reception and on-site support from our friendly team are, of course, included for our members.
